

I am deeply opposed to media deregulation, and want the June 2 vote to be postponed, and this process to be transparent and inclusive of the voices of the American citizenry. Media deregulation will erode one of the most important foundations of our democracy, and this is unacceptable to me.

You have a responsibility to preserve the spirit of our democracy, as public servants. You do not have the right to make a decision that is so deeply and widely opposed by the American public.